a/k/a "DR. CHAOS,"

Defendant.

SOFRON B. NEDILSKY
CLERK

02-CR087

Case No.02-Cr-

[T. 18 U.S.C. §§ 32(a)(3), 371, 844(h), 844(i), 1030(a)(5)(A), 1362, 1366(b), 2320 &
2511(1)(a)]

INDICTMENT

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES:

That from on or about February 14, 1998, and continuing to on or about January 25, 2001,
in the State and Eastern District of Wisconsin and elsewhere,

JOSEPH D. KONOPKA,
a/k/a "DR. CHAOS,"

knowingly combined, conspired, confederated and agreed with others known and unknown to the grand jury, to commit the following offenses against the United States:

1. To willfully and maliciously injure or destroy, or interfere with any of the works, property, or material of any means of communication used or intended to be used for military or civil defense functions of the United States, all in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1362;
2. To knowingly and willfully damage the property of an energy facility in an amount exceeding $5,000, all in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1366(b);

3. To willfully damage, destroy or disable any air navigation facility in a way likely to endanger the safety of an aircraft in flight, all in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 32(a)(3);

4. To maliciously damage or destroy by means of fire any building used in interstate commerce, all in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 844(i).

DESCRIPTION OF THE CONSPIRACY

5. During the period of the conspiracy, defendant Joseph D. Konopka, a/k/a "Dr. Chaos," was the self-appointed leader of a loose affiliation of persons called "The Realm of Chaos," which recruited its members 1) from participants in the Internet Relay Chat ("IRC") channel that defendant Konopka operated called, "#teens4satan" or "Teens For Satan," 2) from youths identified as customers of the Infinity Technology network services, and 3) from friends and associates of other participants in "The Realm of Chaos."

6. Defendant Konopka would identify young males, often minors, from either the customer base of his employer at the time, Infinity Technology, Inc. of Green Bay, Wisconsin, or from friends of the previously recruited young males, and induce such persons to join him in ventures designed to entertain themselves by engaging in property damage and then observing the consequences. Such property damage included attacks on communications and energy facilities, air navigation facilities, and buildings used in interstate commerce.

7. Defendant Konopka would drive one or more of these young recruits with him to the locations of communications and energy facilities, air navigation facilities, or buildings used in interstate commerce, where defendant Konopka would damage or attempt to damage such facilities by fire, electrical short-circuiting, or other means.

8. Defendant Konopka would further instruct these young recruits how to cause such property damage, encourage or require them to participate in such attacks, and reward them for their active participation.
